

Banco Davivienda announces the following organizational changes in the members of its Senior Management, which were adopted by the Board of Directors and will be effective as of January 1, 2024:

- Patricio Melo Guerrero, Executive Vice President of Media and Legal Representative of the Bank, after 10 years of association with the Bank, will leave said position to enjoy his retirement.
- Ricardo León Otero, who has 18 years of experience with the Bank, assumes the role of Executive Vice President of Media and will therefore leave his role as Executive Vice President of Risk. Ricardo León Otero will continue as the Bank's Legal Representative.
- Álvaro José Cobo, will assume the role of Executive Vice President of Risk and Legal Representative of the Bank. Álvaro José Cobo has been linked to Grupo Bolívar for more than 23 years and was previously Vice President of Insurance Banking and Digital Businesses of Seguros Bolívar.