Banco Davivienda

February 2024

Disclaimer

This presentation has been prepared by Davivienda S.A. (the "Issuer" or the "Company" or "Davivienda") for the exclusive use of the recipients thereof from the Company. This presentation is neither an offer to sell nor the request of an offer to purchase the preferred shares to which it relates (the "Preferred Shares").

The public offering process on which this presentation relates (the "Public Offering") has been previously approved by the Financial Superintendence of Colombia ("SFC" for its acronym in Spanish) pursuant to Official Letter No. 2024017246-013-000 of February 13, 2024. The Public Offering authorization granted by the SFC does not imply any qualification or responsibility from the SFC regarding the registered individuals or corporate entities or regarding the price, goodness or negotiability of the Preferred Shares, or the solvency of the Issuer. The listing of the Preferred Shares on the Colombian Stock Exchange ("bvc", for Bolsa de Valores de Colombia) does not imply certification of the goodness of the securities or the solvency of the Company by the bvc.

Neither the Prospectus of the Issuance and Placement Program under which the Preferred Shares will be issued (the "Prospectus") nor this presentation constitute a public offering or an invitation by or on behalf of the Company, the Structurer, the Legal Advisor, the Lead Placement Agent and/or the Placement Agents to subscribe for the Preferred Shares. Therefore, they can be supplemented, added or corrected.

The information contained in the Prospectus and in this presentation has been prepared to assist the recipients of the Tender Offer interested in subscribing for the Preferred Shares, in conducting their own evaluation of the Offer of the First Issuance of Preferred Shares charged to the global quota of the Issuance and Placement Program. Notwithstanding the foregoing, they are not intended to contain all the information that a potential Investor may eventually require.

The information contained in the Prospectus, in this presentation, or such information subsequently provided to any person, whether orally or in writing, with respect to the Offering of the First Issue of Preferred Shares issued by the Issuer charged to the global quota of the Issuance and Placement Program, should not be considered as legal, tax, fiscal, accounting, financial, technical or other kind of advice to any of such persons by the Issuer, the Structurer, the Lead Placement Agent, the Placement Agents or the Legal Advisor. It is the responsibility of each potential Investor to carry out the risk analysis with their respective advisors in legal, tax, fiscal, accounting, financial, technical or any other matters related to the eventual subscription of Preferred Shares.

The Issuer, the Structurer and Lead Placement Agent and the Legal Advisor have not authorized any person to submit information other than or additional to that contained in the Prospectus or in this presentation for the Offering of the First Issue of Preferred Shares charged to the global quota of the Issuance and Placement Program and, therefore, they are not responsible for information not contained within the Prospectus and this presentation, nor for information provided by third parties. If someone provides additional or different information, it should not be relied upon.

Disclaimer

The profitability of investments in Shares is subject to the Issuer's dividend policy and financial performance. There is no guaranteed rate of return. Investing in Davivienda's Shares carries the risk of loss of the capital invested.

This presentation does not contain all information necessary to assess all factors that will be relevant to the recipient of this presentation (the "Recipient") when considering any potential transaction and any Recipient should conduct its own research and analysis. This presentation is for informational and reference purposes only. It is not intended to be, and should not be, relied upon as a basis for a decision with respect to any potential transaction. Neither the Company nor any of its affiliates or their representatives make any representations or warranties, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of this presentation or any information contained therein, or any other written or oral communication conveyed or made available to the Recipient or its affiliates or representatives. The Company and its affiliates, representatives or agents, are hereby expressly released, to the fullest extent permitted by law, including all applicable securities laws, from any liability based, in whole or in part, on the presentation or on any information contained therein or on any other written or oral communication conveyed or made available to the Recipient or its affiliates or representatives, including, without limitation, any errors or omissions therein.

Forward-Looking Information Statement

This presentation contains "forward-looking information." Forward-looking information includes statements that use forward-looking terminology such as "may," "could," "would," "should," "intend," "target," "plans," "expects," "budget," "estimates," "forecasts," "schedules," "anticipates," "believes," "continues," "potential," "sees" or the negative or grammatical variation thereof, or other variations thereof or comparable terminology. Such forward-looking information includes, without limitation, any statements that may predict, forecast, indicate, or imply future plans, intentions, levels of activity, results, performance, or achievements. Forward-looking information is based on estimates and assumptions of the Issuer's senior management in light of their experience and perception of trends, current conditions and anticipated developments, as well as other factors that the Issuer's senior management considers relevant and reasonable in the circumstances, as of the date of the Prospectus. Although the Company believes these assumptions to be reasonable, they are subject to significant business, social, economic, political, regulatory, competitive and other risks and uncertainties, as well as contingencies and other factors that could cause actual actions, events, conditions, results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking information. Many of the assumptions are based on factors and events that are not within the Company's control and cannot be guaranteed to be correct.

Although the Company has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual actions, events, conditions, results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking information, there may be other factors that cause actions, events, conditions, results, performance or achievements to differ from those anticipated, estimated or anticipated. There can be no assurance that forward-looking information is accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such information. Therefore, the Recipients' analyses and/or decisions should not be based on forward-looking information. The forward-looking information contained herein is made as of the date of this presentation or the date indicated, and the Company disclaims any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events or results or otherwise.

Gradual improvement in the risk profile of the portfolio in line with adjustments in management, risk appetite and origination policies.

- Increases in inflation and interest rates impacted our customers' purchasing power, affecting their ability to make payments, which resulted in higher delinquency levels.
- > We increased our provision levels to protect the portfolio.
- > We implemented various adjustments to our risk appetite and disbursement policies, controlling the growth in higher-risk segments.
- > As a result, we are seeing a gradual improvement in the risk profile of the portfolio, and the more recent disbursements are showing better performance.
