

Banco Davivienda informs that today it successfully completed the public offering and placement of the Ordinary Biodiversity Bonds¹ for an amount of COP$210,550,000,000,000, which were fully awarded to the International Finance Corporation (IFC) in accordance with the terms of the Biodiversity Bonds subscription agreement signed with said entity. The certification of the result of the Bonds' awarding process issued by the statutory auditor will be sent to the Financial Superintendence of Colombia.